

Celtic Winter Faire 2025 – Fact Sheet

Palm Beach County's most magical holiday tradition returns this December with The Year of the Gnome! The Celtic Winter Faire transforms John Prince Park into the mythical Isle of Dunskey, blending Renaissance charm, Celtic folklore, and festive holiday cheer for all ages.

Event Overview

Event Name	Celtic Winter Faire
Dates	December 13–14 & 20–21, 2025
Hours	10:00 AM – 5:00 PM
Location	John Prince Park, Lake Worth Beach, Florida
Admission	Tickets available at www.CelticWinterFaire.com
Parking	Free on-site parking
Organizer	Fae Festivals LLC
Media Contact	Ben Kerr – info@faefestivals.com – (561) 403-7964

Highlights

- The World-Famous Gnome Race and Horseless Joust
- Falconry demonstrations
- Free sword classes by the Palm Beach Sword School
- Blacksmithing demonstrations and guest 'have-a-go' forging sessions
- Free archery range with traditional bows
- Free watercolor workshops for all ages
- Bells2Go Carillon returning from Universal Studios
- Belly dancers, mermaids, and live tavern entertainment
- Free visits with Nicholas of the Whispering Pines (Santa Claus)
- Marketplace of handmade holiday gifts and food including turkey legs and ale

About the Event

The Celtic Winter Faire is an immersive Renaissance-style festival celebrating Celtic culture, craftsmanship, and community. Set in the enchanting world of the Isle of Dunskey, the Faire brings together artisans, performers, and families for two weekends of music, merriment, and magic.

Media Opportunities

Media passes, interviews, and B-roll are available upon request. Press partners receive early access, behind-the-scenes content, and VIP coverage opportunities.

For more information, visit www.CelticWinterFaire.com/press