

CELTIC WINTER FAIRE

Palm Beach County's Holiday Renaissance Festival

2026 EVENT FACT SHEET

The Year of the Kelpie and Selkies

A holiday Renaissance festival blending Celtic folklore, live entertainment, hands-on activities and an artisan village in the fictional Isle of Dunsky.

EVENT OVERVIEW

Dates	December 5–6, 12–13 and 19–20, 2026
Hours	10 am–5 pm each day
Location	Smythe Pavilion, John Prince Park, Lake Worth, Florida
Parking & access	Free parking. Paved paths connect the booths and activities.
What's new	A third weekend, more performers and a visiting Kelpie and Selkie court.

ADMISSION

Single day: Soloan Admission: $30 per person.

Group: Commonkin Ticket: $25 each for four or more tickets for the same date.

Season pass: Portal Voyager Pass: $100 for all six days; named and non-transferable.

Under five: Free with a ticketed adult; no ticket required for the child.

ACTIVITIES, ENTERTAINMENT & HOLIDAY SHOPPING

Included with admission: Sword classes with the Palm Beach Sword School, the traditional archery range, watercolour classes, historical games and visits with Santa.

Blacksmithing: Demonstrations and guest “have-a-go” sessions at the anvil are included with admission.

Entertainment: Gnome Race, Horseless Joust, belly dancers, mermaids and live performances across two taverns; holiday characters include Santa, Krampus and Mari Lwyd.

Artisan market: Handmade holiday gifts, with food and drink including turkey legs and ale.

Food, drinks and vendor purchases are additional.

PRESENTING ORGANISATION

Presented by Eachraidh Outreach Inc, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organisation. Event management by FAE Festivals; staffing by Corsair's Wares.

Media passes, interviews, filming access and partnership enquiries: contact Ben Kerr.

MEDIA CONTACT

Ben Kerr | Event Director | (561) 403-7964 | ben@faefestivals.com

Tickets: CelticWinterFaire.com Press resources: faefestivals.com/press